

INGEAR

Picture This

Tired of saying, "You should have seen it"? Then you need the Nokia 7650. Cutting-edge multimedia messaging service (MMS) enables users to take a photo with the built-in camera, attach a voice message or text, and send it to similarly equipped phones or an email address.

Nokia 7650 camera phone, US$750; www.nokia.com.

Circle 294 on reader service card.

Singing the Blues

Bluetooth wireless technology won't keep you chained to your desk. (The transceiver has a range of 30 feet.) But superb styling, advanced function keys, and one of the best optical mice on the market may actually make your time there more enjoyable.

Microsoft Wireless Optical Desktop for Bluetooth, US$159.99; www.microsoft.com.

Circle 293 on reader service card.

Back 'Em Up

Make back-up copies of data and application files easily and automatically with the EPO CD Backup. This all-in-one unit features "image copy" technology to duplicate the exact data found on the original, without the need of a computer or additional CD-ROM drives.

EPO CD Backup Duplicator, US$399; www.epo.com.tw.

Circle 291 on reader service card.

A Charming Tablet >>

Write and store information as "digital ink," or mark up and annotate documents created with the detachable keyboard. The choice is yours.

Compaq's Tablet PC offers all of the features of current notebooks but adds the flexibility, creativity, and familiarity of putting pen to paper.

Compaq Tablet PC TC1000 US$1699; www.hp.com.

Circle 292 on reader service card.

