

atd

Association for Talent Development

Promoting Your APTD Credential

You've Earned It. Time to Share It!

Share the News and Celebrate

- I'm excited to share that I have earned my #APTD credential!
- Thank you to [@insert person] for supporting me through the #APTD certification process. Couldn't have done it without you!
- Today I officially join the #APTD community. I look forward to sharing ideas and learning from these talented TD professionals!

Share What Your Credential Means to You

What does having the #APTD credential mean to me?

I am committed to the #TalentDevelopment field. My current and future learners can be confident that I continually develop my knowledge and skills to offer a current approach that supports them.

Claim and Post your Digital Badge

Your Digital Badge:

- Was issued when you passed the APTD exam.
- Is a web-enabled credential that verifies your APTD credential and when it was achieved.
- Can be clicked by employers to verify your credential and the standards you currently meet to hold it.
- Can be shared directly to LinkedIn, X, WhatsApp; over email; digital resume; or in your email signature.

Find Your Digital Badge

Posts in Images

Share with an image to celebrate a recent attendance at an event or completion of a project.

More Images

Share your digital certificate or a picture of the printed copy when it arrives.

Remember to @ Us!

@ATD

@atdnational

@Association for Talent Development (ATD)