Proustian Plug

Chances are you can't write like Marcel Proust, but that doesn't exclude you from sharing the author's extraordinary sensitivity to noise. Block out the office din with Boules Quies earplugs. Their wax-over-cotton construction has remained relatively unchanged compared to the variety used by Proust.

Also useful for air travel or swimming.

Best Light

Designed by Robert Dudley Best in 1930, Best and Lloyd's Bestlite has been in continuous production since its creation and is on display in the Design Museum of London. Its Bauhaus-inspired design features a crooked arm with adjustable height and dual pivots at the column and the shade.

The Bestlite is available in several finishes and in floor or desk versions.
