

Vice President Appointed

Cloyd S. Steinmetz, President of the American Society of Training Directors, has recently appointed Mr. Anthony L. Franzolino to fulfill the unexpired term of Drew Young who resigned as Vice President of Region III. This region is comprised of eleven states in the South and Southwest. Mr. Franzolino is currently Training Director at the Texas Engineering & Manufacturing Company and Assistant Professor at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas.

The appointment to Vice President culminates many years of service in the field of training for him which includes: Training Officer in the U. S. Army, Instructor at Ohio University, Assistant to the Training Director at the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company, Staff Training Specialist at the University of Texas, and Assistant Training Supervisor at Consolidated-Vultee Aircraft Corporation in Fort Worth, Texas.

Mr. Franzolino's ASTD activities started in 1947 when he was editor of the News Bulletin for the North Ohio Chapter. For the past four years he has been affiliated with the North Texas Chapter and has been Chairman of the Research and Development, Program, Nominating, and Publicity Committees. He was elected President of the Chapter during the 1954-55 term and currently is Chairman of the Board. In addition to his local ASTD activities, he was recently appointed Chairman of the Convention Sites Committee for the National Organization.

Mr. Franzolino is married, has three children, and resides at 6830 Glendora Avenue in Dallas, Texas.
