What Is CTDO Next?

The CTDO Next network is an exclusive individual membership with impactful organizational benefits for executive-level learning leaders. It was developed to help shape what's next in the talent development field with a focus on the future of work technologies and transformations.

Leaders explore these topics and their implications and determine necessary changes and what new capabilities may be needed.

Eivind Slaaen

Senior Vice President of Human Resources, Head of People and Culture
Development, Hilti Corporation

“

CTDO Next is a unique opportunity for me to get exposure to important topics of the future. Together with a diverse group of outstanding professionals, I can contribute to shape the future of talent development and prepare for the discussion we need to have in our company. The openness and trust are special and build the solid foundation we need to address the challenges ahead.

CTDO Next Member Benefits

Our members leverage this network as a platform to rethink and refine the talent development profession with like-minded peers.

The Benefits of Becoming a Member

Registration to Annual Retreat

Attend a complimentary two-day retreat at a world-class resort with other member executives to hear from thought leaders about transformations in talent development and share ideas about how to shape the future of TD.

Access to Exclusive Learning Executive Content

CTDO Next members and their learning organizations receive full access to ATD's research library of more than 50 full-length research reports, case studies, benchmarking data, and webinars. Through this premier content, members stay up to date on emerging talent development transformations.

Networking With Executive Members

Share challenges and ideas openly with peers in conversations facilitated by talent development luminaries.

A Platform to Share Your Thought Leadership

CTDO Next provides advice to ATD and showcases its collective thought leadership through content outputs in the form of digital articles, podcasts, conference presentations, and webinars.

Events and Education Courses

CTDO Next members receive various complimentary registrations for their teams to use, including for the ATD International Conference & Exposition and TechKnowledge.
