MISSION

Empower Professionals to Develop Talent in the Workplace

WHO WE ARE

The Association for Talent Development (ATD) is a professional membership organization supporting those who develop the knowledge and skills of employees around the world.

WHAT WE DO

We support the talent development profession by providing trusted content in the form of research, books, webcasts, events, and education programs. We host a variety of conferences throughout the year, including the premier international gathering for talent development practitioners.

ATD envisions a future where talent development professionals are at the forefront of workplace learning and performance, driving innovation and excellence across industries worldwide. By embracing the latest in learning technologies, methodologies, and best practices, our collective expertise and commitment set the standard for excellence in talent development. Join us in shaping a future where every professional has the tools, knowledge, and network to thrive and make a lasting impact on the global workforce.

Why Join ATD?

Our members are professionals who help others achieve their full potential by improving their knowledge, skills, and abilities in the workplace. Axel's Odyssey

From Accidental Trainer to Talent Development Titan

Axel had been an exemplary employee at his technology firm. The company wanted to harness Axel's expertise by moving him into a training role. There was just one catch—Axel had no experience in training others.

He knew his job inside and out, but transferring that knowledge to others proved to be a challenge he hadn't anticipated. He struggled with creating engaging content, delivering effective training sessions, and evaluating the learning outcomes. Recognizing the gap between his expertise and his ability to teach others, Axel sought solutions to bridge this divide.

That's when he discovered the Association for Talent Development (ATD). Intrigued, Axel decided to join, hoping it would help him transform his accidental trainer role into a successful career.

ATD membership introduced Axel to a world of best practices and learning theories through engaging articles and resources.

*Through ATD,
Axel transformed from a technical

He leveraged its vast library of tools and templates, customizing them to enhance his training effectiveness. This practical application of knowledge, supported by insights from seasoned professionals, quickly translated into more engaging and effective training sessions.

ATD not only fueled Axel's professional growth but also positioned him as a leader within his company's training department. He continued to rely on ATD for ongoing professional development, ensuring that his training strategies remained at the cutting edge.

Through ATD, Axel transformed from a technical expert to a skilled trainer, demonstrating the power of professional development and community support.

Axel's journey underscores the importance of continuous learning and adaptability in achieving career success.

Ted's Turnaround

From Novice to Master Trainer

Facing the daunting task of becoming a corporate trainer without formal education or experience, Ted was determined to bridge the gap between his passion for helping others learn and his current skill set. He turned to the Association for Talent Development (ATD), a decision that proved to be transformative for his career.

ATD opened a world of resources for Ted, from online micro-courses tailored for beginners to an extensive library of tools, templates, and guides. These resources were specifically designed to address the challenges faced by new trainers, offering practical solutions and cutting-edge practices in talent development.

Ted faced the daunting task of becoming a corporate trainer without formal education.

Another resource that Ted found invaluable was the ATD community. Through ATD, he connected with seasoned professionals and fellow beginners, forming a support network that was both encouraging and enlightening. This connection not only bolstered his confidence but also provided him with diverse perspectives on training and development.

Months passed, and Ted's hard work and dedication began to pay off. He became known for his innovative approach to training, his ability to engage learners, and his unwavering commitment to helping others achieve their full potential.

Ted's journey proves that with the right support and willingness to learn, anyone can achieve career success in TD.

Yolanda's Leap

Building a Talent Development Career

Fresh out of college, Yolanda had just landed her first job in talent development at a burgeoning tech company. Eager to make her mark, she quickly realized that her academic knowledge alone wouldn't suffice in the dynamic and ever-evolving field of talent development. She needed to expand her skills, stay abreast of the latest trends, and, most importantly, connect with seasoned professionals who could guide her on this new journey.

While searching for resources that could aid her professional development, Yolanda stumbled upon the Association for Talent Development (ATD). Intrigued by the wealth of resources and the promise of a vibrant community it offered, she decided to become a Young Professional Plus member.

Through ATD, Yolanda accessed a vast array of webinars and micro-courses covering everything from basic principles to advanced learning technologies, gaining practical knowledge and insights into the field's challenges and opportunities.

Yolanda realized her academic knowledge alone wouldn't suffice in her dynamic and ever-evolving field.

ATD's greatest value came from its networking opportunities. She made invaluable connections with mentors, collaborators, and friends who were eager to support her career development.

Reflecting on her journey, Yolanda realized that her ATD membership had been the catalyst for her rapid growth and success. It had provided her with the knowledge, skills, and network she needed to thrive in the competitive world of talent development. More importantly, it gave her a sense of belonging to a community that was committed to advancing the profession and supporting one another's growth.

Yolanda's story is a testament to the power of professional associations like ATD in fostering the development of young professionals.

What Members Are Saying:

"I would recommend ATD membership just because of the networking opportunities. You have an opportunity to share information with others in your field and gather best practices from around the world."

— Director for Corporate Learning Center

"I've been a member for five years. What keeps me coming back are the amount of resources available at every level of the profession."

— Change Management Consultant

"What made ATD stand out against other organizations is focus. The focus is very tunnel on training and development, but it takes it from every aspect. From digital, to classroom. If you are a coach, a consultant, it really helps to meet you where you are. And on the flip side of that, ATD also helps you as the subject matter expert, as the leader in the marketplace."

— Director of Business Ops, Training and Compliance

"Having access to the ATD webinars and online resources allows me to offer skill development opportunities and resources for my team during department meetings and one-on-one sessions."

— Talent Development Director
