Future

Forward

Leadership

Faster, Smarter,
Further,
Together.

This private, invite-only group gathers the world's top talent development executives who are shaping the future of the profession.

What Is CTDO?

The CTDO network is an exclusive individual membership for executive-level learning leaders.

It was developed to help shape what's next in the talent development field with a focus on the future of work technologies and transformations.

Leaders explore these topics and their implications and determine necessary changes, what new capabilities may be needed.

Eivind Slaaen

Senior Vice President of Human Resources,
Head of People and Culture
Development, Hilti Corporation

CTDO is a unique opportunity for me to get exposure to important topics of the future. Together, with a diverse group of outstanding professionals, I can contribute to shape the future of talent development and prepare for the discussion we need to have in our company. The openness and trust are special and build the solid foundation we need to address the challenges ahead.

CTDO Member Benefits

Our members leverage this network as a platform to rethink and refine the talent development profession with like-minded peers.

The Benefits of Becoming a Member

Registration to Annual Retreat

Attend a complimentary two-day retreat at a world-class resort with other member executives to hear from thought leaders about transformations in talent development and share ideas about how to shape the future of TD.

Access to Exclusive Content

CTDO members and their learning organizations receive full access to ATD's research library of more than 50 full-length research reports, case studies, benchmarking data, and webinars. Through this premier content, members stay up to date on emerging talent development transformations.

Networking With Executive Members

Share challenges and ideas openly with peers in conversations facilitated by talent development luminaries.

A Platform to Share Your Thought Leadership

CTDO provides advice to ATD and showcases its collective thought leadership through content outputs in the form of research, case studies, and tools.

Learning From Innovators

Forward-thinking TD experts and solution providers showcase emerging ideas and products to CTDO members and their teams during special sessions.
